Guild members,

Fall is in the air – we are entering my favorite time of year! Cooler weather, longer nights.

With the daylight hours getting shorter, October will be our last outdoor meeting of 2020. We will have a speaker for this meeting – please see her information in the newsletter.

We will be gathering at the east end of the parking lot – the best place for use of the parking lot lights (this is a different location than our previous meetings). Spot lights will also be provided for viewing quilts. The meeting will start at 6:00pm. Please remember the following for the meeting:

- Bring your own chair
- Have your face mask available when you can't six feet social distance
- Wear your name tag
- Bring your own drink if you wish
- If it is a cool evening, bring a quilt to keep you warm!
- Bring your quilt block from the last meeting
- The rainout date is October 20th

We are planning on gathering on Zoom for November and December.

Please be sure to read the entire newsletter as there are some important information that will be discussed at the meeting.

Happy Quilting,

Teresa Jones

SEPTEMBER MEETING MINUTES

General Meeting Minutes
Olathe Quilter's Guild
September 15, 2020

President Teresa Jones opened the meeting at 6:30 p.m. on September 15 instead of September 8 due to rainy weather. It was held in the parking lot of Olathe Christian Church with a microphone and speaker brought by Teresa's daughter and son-in-law, Ashley & Matt Copeland. Members placed their folding chairs at a 6 foot distance from each other, and wore masks to avoid spreading the coronavirus. Teresa read the names of September birthdays to applause for each member, and again welcomed new member Beth DeLapp.

Mary Ellen Winter led a guild activity. Graph paper was passed and members drew a quilt block and colored it. These were turned in, then members drew out someone else's block to make at home in French Country blue and yellow which will be made into a quilt. Gretchen Schafer has volunteered to quilt it. Then it will be auctioned off, with proceeds going to the Charity Committee. She also gave a quiz of quilting terms and the winners were Heather Schaller, Sherri Irving and Linda Hagen. The winner of the drawing by the KCRQF committee was Carol Crane, a ticket for the Opportunity Quilt. Sign-ups were accepted for Show and Tell during the 10 minute break. All were encouraged to visit the KCRQF sales table, and the Ways and Means table.

After the break the business meeting was held. Cheryl Wilcox made a motion to approve the minutes of the last business meeting August 11th, and Pauline Sanders seconded. The vote was affirmative. Janie Benander made a motion to accept the treasurer's report, which was seconded by Kenda Camp and adopted.

The next workshop sponsored by K-State Extension will be September 22nd, 6:00-8:00 pm via Zoom. Cindy Nice will be teaching an easy jelly roll pillow cover. Mary Pacey will teach the workshop on October 27th, which will be wool applique on a penny table runner. Those who register should pick up a kit of materials at the Extension office. Mary will welcome additional donations of wool scraps. Please contact Mary if you have workshop ideas for the future.

Charity Committee: Cindy Nice announced that Jessie VandenBerg made five charity quilts this month. She still has two tubs of quilt tops that need to be finished. She said quilting may be done by decorative stitches on a domestic sewing machine, as Janie Benander did, or even bar tacks.

Teresa read the new slate of officers to serve in 2021, to be voted on in October, as follows: President Libby Corrison, Vice President Nicolette Deplazes, Program Chair Mary Ellen Winter, Program Elect Sheri Keller, Secretary Carol Crane, Treasurer Rachel Rohrer, Ways & Means Karen Genis, Ways & Means elect currently unfilled, Historian Cheryl Wilcox, Public Relations Janice Meloan and Kathy Manning, Membership Jean Heer, Newsletter Editor Jenny Boudreaux, Advisor Teresa Jones.

Gretchen Ryan of the Welcome Table reported 37 members present. Sheila Pierce won the drawing.

The next meeting will be October 13 with Ashley Copeland as speaker. It will be set up closer to the church building, and a spotlight will be used since it is getting dark earlier.

Jenny Boudreaux reported that Once We Were Refugees is once again accepting donations of machines and any and all sewing needs.

An antique quilt donated to the guild was offered in a silent auction handled by Linda Hagen. Sherri Irving won the quilt for $30 which will benefit the Charity Committee.

Show and Tell participants were Peggy Bayard, Mary Whitchurch, Pauline Sanders, Janis Raspberry, Jessie VandenBerg, Maribeth Kehl, Carol Crane, Mary Pacey, Joyce Bardeen, Ruthi Hoadley, Linda Hagen, Heather Schaller, and Janie Benander.

The Guild Board meeting was held immediately following the guild meeting. Teresa Jones concluded the meeting at 7:45 p.m.

Carol Crane, Secretary

UPCOMING MEETING & PROGRAM UPDATES

First a bit of housekeeping!

As it is getting dark earlier in the evenings we have moved the October meeting up by 1/2 hour. We will be starting at 6:00 pm. We will also be relocated in the parking lot to provide a bit more light for our meeting. See Teresa's President's Letter on the first page for details.

If you took home one of the drawn blocks last month we are asking that you make it in the French blues and yellows. If you need to use a third color a cream would be fine. Bring them to the next meeting and we will work our magic!

In October we will be having our first "real" program since the pandemic. I am pleased to announce that Ashley Copeland will be giving a presentation called Four Score and Shuffle. There will be an additional Facebook Workshop exclusively for the Olathe Guild from November 16-30. Attached is Ashley's bio and the information regarding the program and workshop.

As we are quickly running out of daylight our plans over the next few months will change formats. We will be holding our meetings and programs via the Zoom format. November will feature Diane Harris of Stash Busters. Her presentation is called Jingle Bell Trunk Show featuring her Stash busting techniques. Her bio is also included in the attachments.

We will be having a program on December on no sew Christmas ornaments. These are cute ideas for office gifts, tree decorations, Bunco prizes or package decorations. Details to follow.

And finally we even have plans into the new year. While the year has been hard for all of us know that we are really trying to get good value programs to all of our members.

Stay Safe.
Mary Ellen

From Jenny Boudreaux:

You may recall Ann and Bill Say who spoke to our guild last year about the Once We Were Refugees non-profit group who teach refugees in the KC area to sew, thus giving them useful skills that can be used at home or to find employment. With the pandemic, donations were temporarily suspended. Now there is a contact here in Olathe who can pick up donations for the group - anything ranging from notions or fabric to irons, sewing machines, etc. Please contact Theresa Gordon at either 913-226-8068 or email at tgordon@ucmo.edu to arrange a pick-up of your donations. Learn more about Once We Were Refugees at <https://www.oncewewererefugees.org/>.

UPDATES ON UPCOMING EVENTS

OUTREACH/EDUCATION COMMITTEE

The Outreach/Education Committee is happy to announce the schedule of workshops for 2021. The committee has come up with both technique and project workshops. When these are once again available for in-house presentations, we will notify the guild. As of now, these are to be Zoom meetings - all take place on the 4th Tuesday of each month at 6:00 p.m. A Beginning Quilting Class is also in the works, but will have a different day of the month for these workshops.

CHARITY COMMITTEE UPDATE

Exciting new event at OQG - "SILENT AUCTION"

Remember that we are going to auction a few beautiful quilts, and all proceeds will benefit the charity committee for batting, backing, etc. Here is a picture of this month's auction quilt. It is 74 x 84, all hand quilted, backing and binding are yellow. Bidding will start at $25 and increase bids of $5 will be taken. People are welcome to start the bidding as soon as the newsletter arrives. You do not have to be a guild member to bid. You can send your bid to memerehagen@gmail.com.

Please remember this is for charity for us to buy batting and backing.
Thanks,

Cindy Nice, Charity Committee Chair
Linda Hagen, Charity Committee silent auction

CHARITY COMMITTEE UPDATE (contd.)

TURNING IN CHARITY PROJECTS

To make life simpler for all involved, I have created a form for members to fill out and return with charity items. It will help with record keeping and hopefully will allow members to track their points earned. The form lists the different choices and point value of “jobs” in relation to our charity projects. At the bottom of the form is the receipt for items you personally donate to a charity of your choice.

Due to the coming of cold weather that will not allow us to have outside meetings, Cindy Nice will be accepting quilts with a pre-determined time, date and place of drop offs. This form needs to accompany those items you wish donated to the charities selected by the members. If you donate to a charity of your choice, also give the form to Cindy.

The new/revised point system will begin with the items turned in starting with August when we initiated the program. I am keeping a notebook of monthly points earned and a page accumulating the total of points earned. I would suggest that members copy off several copies to keep in reserve so Jenny does not have to continually put the attachment with each the newsletter.

If you were one of the few who told me of points earned at the September meeting, please fill out a form dated for the September meeting and turn in. My memory/record keeping may not be the same as your knowledge of the projects turned in.

I have started filling a big popcorn tin with the entries—it would be great if we could get it filled by next August – think of all the people we are warming with our projects!

Mary Pacey

POINTS CHARTS FOR CHARITY WORK:

- Isolette Cover 3 points
- Quillow 6 points
- Quick Quilt without binding 11 points
- Quick Quilt with binding 12 points

* See the attachment in the email with the newsletter for a receipt you can print and bring to Mary! **

Quilts as follows:

- Completely finished quilt 14 points (all work done by you)
- Top only 4 points
- Piecing the back 2 points
- Batting supplied by you 2 points
- Making the binding for a quilt 1 point
- Applying binding 1 point
- Quilting the quilt 4 points
- Organizing help on charity supplies 1 point for every 2 hours

WAYS AND MEANS & "GARAGE SALE TABLE"

First I want to thank everyone for your generous donations to make our Garage Sale a success this year. Things that haven't sold during the year will be handed off to the new Ways and Means chair. Since this is probably our last meeting of the year, all the items on the tables are items that haven't been there before. So be sure to come and check it out. There are quilt kits, both piecing and appliqué, Christmas kits and thread. There are books, lots of magazines, a clover iron, a couple of vintage ions and an ironing mat. There are more quilt stencils and miscellaneous items including a wonderful cross-stitch wall piece with completed monthly exchange panels. Hope to see you at the Garage Sale at our October Quilt Guild meeting. Carolyn

BLOCK OF THE MONTH - OCTOBER

The chill of fall is definitely here. We are nearing the end of this project. This month I chose a block that makes an interesting pattern as you join a row of blocks together, The Jewel Box. The second block is a Spool. Enjoy!!

As I look at November being the last month of the 2020 Block of the Month, I'm considering what to do to see everyone's finished quilts /quilt tops. I wonder if we could do it virtually? First I need everyone participating in this year's Block of The Month to email me at simpler4me@yahoo.com and please let me know, can you take a picture of the quilt or quilt top you made using the 2020 Block of the Month. If there are members who can't send a picture or would rather not do this virtually, we will do the reveal and prizes at our first in-person meeting In 2021.

NOTES FROM MEMBERS

Kerri Robinson, who is still a member of our guild even though she has moved to Texas, sent this note after she received several items in the mail from guild members:

"I was released from the hospital yesterday (the second time) and when I got home there were so many get well cards from Olathe Guild Members. Today I took time to read each one and so many people were praying for my recover and had such kind words. It really made me feel so loved and I want everyone to know how much I appreciate the cards, prayers and kind words. I fell on the Wednesday the 16th, walking the dog fractured my head in 3 places, but I remember nothing, I was released from the hospital on Sept 19th, but readmitted on the 22 because I could not keep medication down. I had to have a hiatal hernia operation on Friday the 25th, then released from hospital on Sunday the 27th. I am on the mend, and have lots of appointments with different specialist. Right now I have head pain and stomach pain, but each day I can feel improvement. No walking the dog for a while and it may be a month or more before I'm able to quilt... right now I'm become addicted to Netflix! Let everyone know how I appreciate all the cards I received, they really lifted my spirits!"

From Lynda Ochs: A friend told me about this and how she had used her scrapes and had enjoyed placing hearts around her area and even finding one. Thought I would make a few and place around some areas close to me. This is the website:

The Violet Protest is a public effort to send 50 hand-made textile squares to each and every member of Congress in support of these core American values: • Respect for the other • Citizenship • Compromise • Country over party and corporate influence • Courage • Candor • Compassion • Creativity. www.violetprotest.com

From Susan Gandy: I have been working with a curator at the Johnson County History Museum this past week. The Museum is at 87th & Metcalf. There are two events you might want to check out:

1. Nov. 7 - Jan. 23: Exhibit of quilts owned by the Museum. This will include one that was made specifically for the museum and donated by our Guild in 1998. (The info is not yet posted on the Museum's site but should be in the near future.)
2. Thursday, November 12, 2020 - History on Tap – Quilts on the Kansas Frontier. Barbara Brackman is a well-known quilter, quilt historian, and author. Join her for a discussion (online) of the history and culture of quilting in Kansas. Corresponds to museum's quilt exhibit.

MEMBER NOTES & MEMBERSHIP INFO

From Sherri Irving: I am wanting to see if there would be anyone willing to help me 'mend' a friend's quilt by appliqueing a heart over a seam that was coming apart. I have already tacked it together, but thought I would then hide it by a heart applique. I have the fabric, just could use some help in finishing it. Thanks.

Opportunity Quilt

Our amazing OQG Opportunity Quilt is done! Many of us sewed blocks for the quilt top, which was designed and created by Lisa Hirsch. It was quilted by Heather Buchwitz and bound by Kenda Camp. At the October guild meeting, everyone will have a chance to see the quilt and to purchase single tickets for $1 apiece or six tickets for $5!

KCRQF - UPDATE ON THE FESTIVAL

The KCRQF Board met with guild representatives on Saturday 9/19 at the Prairie Baptist church with several members attending via Microsoft Teams. Our Olathe Guild provided the online meeting setup.

- WE NEED A VOLUNTEER OR TWO from the guild to organize our guild quilts. Mary Ellen has offered to do a lot of the work but she does need help.
- We have raised & deposited $645 in merchandise!!!!
- 3 guilds have pulled out of the festival – Topeka, Blue Valley & KC Modern. This leaves quilt hanging, bus ambassadors & concierge without a guild in charge:
 - Concierge – This may be taken over by Quilters Guild of Greater KC pending their board review in coming weeks. They had responsibility for White Gloving but that will not be a requirement as there will be boxes of plastic gloves near all of the quilts. The concierge will likely have 1 volunteer at the door entrance to the quilt rooms reminding visitors to glove up.
 - Bus Ambassadors – Kathy Limpic will take on the bus organizing & utilize the concierge committee volunteers to greet buses on their arrival.
 - Quilt Hanging – This will be distributed across all guilds. Each guild will hang & drop their own quilts & a portion of the judged quilts. Mary Ellen & I have been asked to be the “chaos coordinators” during hanging & dropping times. We’ve agreed as we figure this is a single day commitment for the most part & something we can tackle with just 1-2 helpers.

To minimize costs, the festival has approached the OPCC about dropping the ballroom & reducing our room load at the Sheraton. The ballroom is contingent upon it being reserved for an alternate use – but June and many delayed weddings has the OPCC confident it will be snapped up for part of the time. What does that mean for layout?

- The entry will be the doors used in 2017. Tickets however will be taken right after you turn the corner from the escalator. That entire hallway will have vendors as will the interior of the convention room. Aisles have been widened from prior years. The festival will have 1 way suggested paths, signs suggesting limited capacity inside each booth etc. Nothing will be policed but the festival will be doing their due diligence to have suggestions in place.
- Pipe & Drape costs are being reduced with no carpeting being used ($11k for carpet alone) and some other savings opportunities.
- Guild Opportunity Quilt booths will be on the main floor where open seating has been in the past – in front of the classrooms. Each guild will have a 10x10 booth. The Merchandise booth will also be in this area.

- Guild Quilts will be in the main convention room upstairs with the vendors along the north wall.
- Judged & Challenge Quilts (other than the 2 winners which will be in plexiglass again) will be in the largest classroom on the main floor – near the Opportunity Quilt Booths. 6 classrooms are single rooms & the last is a double room – the double room is where the quilt showing will be. You WILL need a hand stamp to enter this room. Tickets will be taken upstairs and your hand immediately stamped.

Other bits of news:

- Tickets will be $17 (from $17.50) at the door; $15 in advance for single day. Kids < 3 are FREE & 4-12 $10/day. Kids tickets are only available at the door.
- Some teachers include Julia Quiltoff, Angela Walters & Tia Curtis will be in the 1 long arm room provided by Handi Quilter. Jacquie Gering & Susan Cleveland are a few other big name quilters. I (Heather) personally LOVE LOVE LOVE Jacquie. If you aren't familiar with either of these quilters, please check them out.
- QuiltArt Engagement calendar has chosen 3 guild quilts from the last festival to include in their 2022 calendar – so keep that in mind when making your guild quilt entries!
- Country Heritage Tours will be bringing 2 buses in on Friday with an overnight stay. They will also have a bus coming through earlier in the week with an option for bus go-ers to stay the weekend at the Sheraton.

Guild booth sizes have been determined. Olathe will have 4 10x10 booths (3 sides each) with 10x8'tall walls. We can request a bar at 3' high for any walls we like – the more small quilts we have the more we can show! Start working on those wall hangings now.

As I said at the start - we still need a guild quilt coordinator. Mary Ellen has said she can help with the wall design & organizing – she'd like a helper or two (or three) to help measure & photograph quilts as we have in prior years. We will also be responsible for HANGING AT THE FESTIVAL – 2-3 volunteers for the day before to hang our Olathe Guild quilts & 2-3 to take them down at the end. Mary Ellen & I will be unable to help with this job.

Our next meetings are 10/17, 11/21 and 12/19 – probably not all of those dates – but 1 or maybe 2 of them.

Heather & Mary Ellen
